GLENDALÉ NOW OFFERS FREE ELECTRONICS RECYCLING AT THE GLENDALÉ LANDFILL

GLENDALÉ, Ariz. – Out with the old and in with the new. This is the time of the year when many electronics items are purchased, and people get rid of their old TVs, DVD players, cell phones and more. Just in time for these holiday purchases, Glendale is now providing residents a permanent drop-off location for electronics recycling. The electronics recycling (E-Waste) program offers a convenient way to recycle unwanted electronic items safely and responsibly.

The E-Waste drop-off area is located at the Glendale Landfill. Residents can bring both working and non-working electronic items to the landfill anytime during regular operating hours, and the program is free of charge. Not only is the program free for residents, it is no charge to the city to have these items recycled.

The types of electronic items that will be accepted are:

- Computer equipment, including personal computers, laptop and notebook computers, central processing units (CPU's), keyboards and mice, monitors, circuit boards, hard drives, other computer drives (floppy, CD-ROM, Zip, etc.), software, printers, copiers, scanners, fax machines, external storage devices and modems
- Other office equipment, including typewriters, calculators, adding machines, telephones and answering machines
- Other miscellaneous and home electronics, including cell phones, , pagers, televisions, (console, flat screen, projection, etc.), videocassette recorders (VCRs), stereo equipment, speakers, cameras, radios and video game systems

While this is a new addition to the city's recycling program, E-waste items should NOT be placed into the residential curbside containers.
